

THIRD CONDITIONAL

Use:

The third conditional is used to talk about unreal situations in the past (things that didn't happen, and how things might have been different if they had.)

Structure:

- IF CLAUSE

Past perfect (had+past participle)

- OUTCOME

Would have + past participle

Example:

- If I had studied harder, I would have passed the exam.
- If they hadn't stayed late last night, they would have woken up on time.
- Would she have gone to the party if she hadn't found money in her pocket?
